Adjacent to the residence of Brigitte Bardot, the actress who transformed St-Tropez to the glittering jet-set destination of today, Villa Canoubwest is located in an extremely private residential area of St Tropez. Tucked away on a quiet, private cul-de-sac, the other side of the peninsula from the popular Pampelonne Beach, this magnificent villa is a moment's stroll from the endearing waters of the picturesque Baie de Canebier. The perfect bay to moor your boat and enjoy an enchanting stretch of beach with its powdery sand and soothing umbrella pines.

Despite its secluded location, Villa Canoubwest is less than a 10-minute drive from the centre of St-Tropez with its atmospheric Vieux Port where gleaming yachts are moored and lively cafes spill out onto cobbled streets. The most glamorous destination in France, St-Tropez oozes both charm and decadence. Here you will find everything from designer boutiques, gastronomic restaurants and gourmet food shops to bustling fish markets, art galleries, blissful beach bars and scenic hiking paths. It is home to Arnaud Donckele's three-Michelin-starred restaurant, La Vague d'Or, with a cuisine inspired by the flavours of Provence.
